

The Vine out now

Dried grape growers Stephen and Malcolm Bennett are featured on the cover of the latest issue of The Vine magazine.

The April–June edition is now available online, and the print version will soon be arriving in your mailbox.

This issue includes stories about innovation on the Bennett brothers' farm, mechanised vertical trellis systems, and DFA's new CEO Anne Mansell and Field Officer Stuart Putland.

Current and past editions can be viewed under the news section of the DFA website, or in the members' online library.

Dried fruit property for lease

A dried grape property in Coomealla is available for lease.

The property, which has about 30 acres of sunmuscats and sultanas, has produced up to 90 tonnes and includes 101 megalitres of NSW Murray water.

A one to three-year lease is available.

For further information, please contact Michael Mobilio on 0437 751 879.

Pathway to agribusiness qualification

Emerging leaders from regional areas can now sign up for one of the longest-running rural leadership programs in Australia.

The Marcus Oldham College Rural Leadership Program (MORLP) is an intensive five-day workshop conducted on campus in Geelong.

It includes an opportunity to extend your knowledge and enrol in a Master of Agribusiness.

This will involve additional online lectures and assessment tasks on completion of the workshop. Additional fees will also apply.

MORLP applications close on Friday 2 June, or Saturday 29 April for the early bird discount.

For more information, visit the Marcus Oldham website or contact Postgraduate Studies Director Yasmin Chalmers on 03 5247 2904 or chalmers@marcusoldham.vic.edu.au.

This project has been funded by Horticulture Innovation Australia Limited using the Dried Grape Industry research levy and funds from the Australian Government.
